Monday

Program Director: Michael Velez

I got the Mo'
5-6 pm
Drive home with freeway favorites brought to you by Mathew Weber. His show is a potpourri of rock, folk, and mild alternative music.

Environment today
6-7 pm
A talk/news show that focuses on environmental issues. The specific topics range the gamut: transportation, land-use planning, legislation, etc. The purpose of the show is to provide timely relevant information and encourage environmental responsibility.

Flip Side
7-8 pm
You will hear Jazz focusing on the 1940s-1960s era. Most likely including various live tracks by musicians such as Charlie Parker, Thelonious Monk, Billie Holiday, etc...

The Rain Dance
8-9 pm
This show is all about exposing the underexposed. Lots of great music from all over the world never makes it onto the radio in Portland. Usually at least half the show will be devoted to local and regional music.

Brady Experience
9-10 pm
Johnny Bravo brings an hour of indie pop noise music to the airways, fusing the Boredoms with Bricks, and pureeing Trumans Water with Bitch Magnet. Because it's not always a Sunshine Day!

Chronic Altitude
10-11 pm
The Ladies bring to you a mixture of the finest new and classic college music. Emphasis on female and local talent. Models Inc. can't compare to the vamps of Chronic Altitude.

Imperial Darkness
11-12 am
My name is Derek Kaiser from somewhere, Ill (corn capital of the world). My program focuses on dark humored endeavors.

Tuesday

Program Director: Brian Joseph

Rude Boy's Revenge and Coffee Hour
5-6 pm
DJ Simmerdown presents the best in the past, present, and future of ska, bluebeat, and ska-influenced reggae. First, 2nd, and 3rd generation ska from bands like the Wailers, Desmond Dekker, the Specials, English Beat, Dance Hall Crashers, Hepcat.

Shrink Rap
6-7 pm
Bargain basement psychotherapy.

Freedom of the Ear
7-8 pm
If the individual frees their mind, they can accomplish anything... if the individual frees their ear, they can hear anything. With acceptance of the philosophical base of freedom that encompasses the art form titled "jazz", Tom Boylan takes "Freedom of the Ear" as a foothold to explore a world free of stereotype.

Yellow Submarine
8-9 pm
Round trip to Asia with Judy Moon. A variety type of music will be played: rock, punk, heavy metal, industrial, experimental, techno, or even traditional. One of the focuses will be on music which expresses real social issues happening in Asia. The rest will be throwing in funky Asian music of the 90's.

Operation Radio Rescue
9-10 pm
Local odors emanate from the studio.

The Zen Crux
10-11 pm
Go to space and back with the Zen Crux, Portland's only High Energy music program. Genuine independent rock from noise to pop - feedback and flowers with Mike V.

Medusa's Banquet
11-12 am
Host Zenia pulls listeners through a vortex so small it induces discomfort, yet diverse enough to slew them through a vast range of emotions, thoughts, experiences.

Wednesday

Program Director: Kirill Galetski

Coming Attractions
5-6 pm
Rotating announcers get hands on experience while you get the ears on pleasure of grass roots radio - KPSU.

Back Talk
6-7 pm
Tony Velveeta invites PSU students to program one hour of live radio. Play and say what you like, take call-ins, have some good clean fun.

Vintage Vinyl
7-8 pm
Laurel Welch's interests are old music, dehydrated food, and time travel. She's an International Studies major, Latin America. She spins the finest and rarest 78s in everything from jazz to a Latin beat.

Less Rock
8-9 pm
Eclectic up the ass. Free jazz and free ambient and free love. Brendan was excommunicated from his church for discordent behavior.

Red Archer
9-10 pm
Kirill plays an eclectic mix of both international vocal and music of various sty;es, genres, and periods. Along with the sounds he offers music critiques and book and film reviews.

Bore Hole
10-11 pm
When you're tired of the same old grind, tune in to the Bore Hole with Douggie Grime to catch older punk and new music from the pop underground, from the Angry Samoans to Husker Du to Slant 6.

Dig a Deeper Hole
11-12 am
In which we endeavor to bring you all manner of experimental, industrial (of the Throbbing Gristle variety), ambient or odd music. You will hear Nurse With Wound, Current 93, Daniel Menche, Coil, SPK, :zoviet-france:, Laibach, and so on. The underground can be found...just dig deeper.

Program Director: Scott Kirkwood

Voyage to the Extremity
5-6 pm
A musical adventure traveling straight to you. A journey through 80s college music to today's scene. Examples: Boomtown Ruts, Joe Jackson, Split-Enz, REM, Offspring, L-7 and the list goes on.

The Yak Shak
6-7 pm
Host d'Amileau(sounding a lot like - d - a - meel - e - O -) has extreme liberal ideas with focus on realism. Of course to figure out what that means exactly, tune in to The Yak Shak.

American Roots
7-8 pm
The main course of this musical feast is the blues, with heavy helpings of gospel, R&B, rockabilly, honk-tonk, some early jazz, and whatever else we can squeeze onto your plate. Brought to you by Sherman Waring.

Temporary Autonomous Zone
8-9 pm
I am here from Eugene by way of Rochester, NY. My show focuses on a wide variety of different styles of jazz. If it's jazzy, I'll play it. Brought to you by Matt Weir.

Radio KAOS
9-10 pm
Agent 99 plays predominantly indie rock with an occasional Phil Collins song thrown in (well, maybe not - you'll have to tune in to find out, but if anyone could pull it off she could)

Completely Nauseous
10-11 pm
Freudian Slip bites into the loudest hard core, chews on the most aggresive thrash, and gnaws upon the heaviest grind core, digesting it all and spewing it out on the radio.

Broken Thoughts
11-12 am
Screaming at full distorted volume, Ministry, 16 Volt, Nine Inch Nails, Skrew, and others help you purge all the week's frustration and anger. The most cathartic fun you can have.

Saturday

Program Director: Jason Bergstrom

PMB Hour
5-6 pm
Popular Music Board: Live music

Chamber of Thrills
6-7 pm
Rock and roll/power pop/variety - anything goes. Bands like Cheap Trick, Redd Kross, Posies, Blue Oyster Cult, wide range of rock music.

Memory Motel
7-8 pm
As Fred Savage's 15th cousin-in-law I've taken an interest in the "Wonder" years to the point where I HAVE to get an hour of overplay-free Classic Rock a week or I become as tone deaf as Bryan Ferry singing "Piece of My Heart."

Ground Zero
8-9 pm
Smooth, jazzy hip-hop.

J-Reafs Hour
9-10 pm
I would like to provide a positive, creative, and very enjoyable style of hip hop that Portland has yet to explore into.

Euro-house with Tzetzee
10-11 pm
DJ Tzetzi plays only the best in European Dance, Techno and pop. You'll hear bands such as 2 Unlimited, Captain Hollywood Project, Culture Beat, Bad Boys, Blue, Pet Shop Boys and U96.

Least Significant Digit
11-12 am
As Saturday night slips towards the witching hour, you can slip into a groove with techno, trance, and ambient music with host Anthony Fiarito. Every week, LSD brings you bands like Orbital, Underworld, and The Future Sound of London.
